September 3, 2024 (Herndon, Virginia) – The Enterprise Wireless Alliance (EWA) is pleased to announce an upcoming virtual networking event that will be held on Thursday, September 12 at 3:00 p.m. EST hosted by 50Strong that will bring together prominent EWA members and military-affiliated job seekers for an afternoon of meaningful connections and opportunities.

As the demand for military talent continues to grow, this virtual event offers an easy, casual and virtual opportunity for transitioning service members, military spouses, veterans, reserve/guard and student veterans to learn about employment opportunities and to engage directly with industry leaders in the wireless communication sector.
